Qurann, a 23-year-old man, and Cheryl, his 60-year-old girlfriend, have gone viral on TikTok for their eyebrow-raising age gap.

As someone who spent 15 years in a cult, I found, in Amanda Montell's new book "Cultish: The Language of Fanaticism," a way to understand something about cults that all my soul-crushing time there didn't give me.

One architect has a bold vision for making New York more livable: Splice through Manhattan's blocks to create public courtyards for outdoor dining, public open space, or even car-free streets.

You've probably seen this estate in "The Godfather," "The Bodyguard," or Beyonce's "Black Is King" music video. Now go behind the scenes with real estate agent Enes Yilmazer as he tours the 9-bed 15-bath Beverly Hills estate spread over a 3.5 acre lot.

As SCOTUS prepares to hear another case about affirmative action, it's worth considering the factor that really provides applicants an unfair advantage.

In old age, I had to come to terms with the loneliness I'd felt all my life.

Jason Torchinsky walks us through the history of Electric vehicles, breaking it down into three distinct time periods.

Five proposed bills from US lawmakers will take on Big Tech – Amazon, Apple, Facebook, Google – by making it harder for them to acquire new businesses and force them to even the playing field.
